Official Rules and Regulations of Satsuma's Got Talent

1. All participants must show up for an audition at the Gulf Coast Opry in Satsuma on October 2, 2009 at 7:00 pm. Any participant who fails to show up for the audition will not be able to participate.
2. Aside from a stage and sound system, participants are asked to provide all other materials needed for their talent act.
3. An individual may perform in more than one act with approval from the director of Satsuma's Got Talent.
4. There is no limit to the number of individuals that can perform in any one act. However, only those listed on the registration form are eligible to perform. Once the registration form has been submitted, no name changes, additions/subtractions, or substitutions will be permitted without special permission from the director Satsuma's Got Talent.
5. Each act is limited to 2 – 5 minutes. This includes setup, breakdown, and performance time. If a performer uses more than 5 minutes, a deduction of 1 point for every 30 seconds over will be assessed in the overall rating score.
6. All performances should be in good taste. Acts containing music, lyrics, gestures, costumes, or material that judges consider to be rude or offensive may have points deducted or be disqualified.
7. Judges will base their evaluation in the following categories:
    - Showmanship
    - Stage Presence
    - Creativity
    - Quality of Act
8. The judges will be selected from the surrounding areas and will represent members of the arts community.
9. The judges will determine the winners.
10. The decisions of the judges are final.
11. Satsuma's Got Talent has the sole authority to disqualify any contestant during any level of the contest for failure to comply with the rules and regulations stated above.
12. The content of the talent show may not be reproduced or distributed without the expressed written consent of the City of Satsuma.
13. Satsuma's Got Talent reserves the right to make changes, additions, deletions, or amendments to rules if circumstances warrant.

If you have additional questions, please contact the director, Kendal Stewart, at (251) 391-1337 or email at kendalstewart@gmail.com.
